

SECTION ONE

Learning from the Ground Up

This section provides an overview of how the wars in our countries are affecting young people's lives. These accounts were obtained in CAP discussions and workshops. The background information is linked to issues arising from these different situations.